In the reference 1st read above, the Commissioner for Cooperation & Registrar of Cooperative Societies, A.P., Hyderabad has stated that, Election Officer was appointed to conduct elections to the Managing Committee of DCCB Ltd., Ananthapur on 18.02.2013 and elections were postponed under Rule 22-C(1)(iii) of APCS Rules, 1964 based on the circumstances explained by the District Collector, Ananthapur. He has also stated that the Ex-President of the DCCB Ltd, Ananthapur has requested for relaxation from the provisions of default norm. The collector Ananthapur District has opined that it is fit and proper to relax relevant rules as a special case in respect of default member PACSs of DCCB Ananthapur to enable the defaulting societies to participate in the elections and to provide an opportunity to democratically elect management in the said bank to come out of debt cycle and in the larger interest of farming community in the district.

2. The CC&RCS, A.P., Hyderabad has therefore requested the Government to issue orders exempting the default PACSs in Ananthapur District from the operation of clause (iii) of second proviso to sub-section (1) of Section 21-A and Section 25(1-A) (d) of APCS Act and Rule 18(d) and 75(2) of APCS Rules, duly invoking the powers vested under Section 123 and Rule 67 & 75 (14) of APCS Rules, in consultation with NABARD, to enable the default PACSs to participate in the election of district level societies i.e., Financing Bank.

3. In the reference 2nd read above, the CGM, NABARD has informed that, they have no objection for taking an appropriate decision regarding the request made by the CC&RCS, A.P., Hyderabad, based on the documents and facts as it deems fit, including the Ananthapur District Collector's report.

4. Government after careful examination of the proposal, hereby exempt the default PACSs in Ananthapur District from the operation of clause (iii) of second proviso to sub-section (1) of Section 21-A and Section 25(1-A) (d) of APCS Act and Rule 18(d) and 75(2) of APCS Rules, duly invoking the powers vested under Section 123 and Rule 67 & 75 (14) of APCS Rules to enable the default PACSs to participate in the election of district level societies i.e., Financing Bank.
